

This week homeroom students have grammar homework on adverbs. Adverbs are word that describe verbs. As we discussed last week, verbs are the action word. If our sentence stated:

Sarah joyfully cheered for the football team.

Cheered is the verb. Students need to think how did she cheer? Joyfully. Joyfully is describing the verb and is therefore an adverb.