

We spent a lot of time the past 3 weeks discussing the Base-Ten method for place value. We also discussed how the Romans wrote numbers. This week for homework students have a review of Roman Numerals and an introduction to Ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs. Students are going to analyze the different symbols for numbers. This homework is due Friday, October 15.