

Homeroom Homework for 10.25-10.28

Students worked on statements and commands this week. Both begin with a capital letter and end with a period. For their homework students will need to decipher between a command and a statement. They will also be asked to write statements and commands. Make sure both begin with a capital letter and end with a period.

Homework is due Thursday, October 28 because students have no school on Friday!