

December 13-17

Students have a homework packet this week. It includes rounding with money, combination word problems, and data collection. The homework will be due Friday, December 17. Additionally, students will have a unit test this Tuesday, December 14. It will cover line plots, tables, rounding, estimation word problems, coin combinations, and word problems with extra information.